Dedicated to—

Anthony James Simeon, who, as able director of the Athletic Department of High Point High School and head football and basketball coach, has led not only the footsteps of his "boys," winning or losing, across the football field or down the basketball court; but who has also steered innumerable faltering and unstable footsteps away from the treacherous sidetracks of life. By wise counsel, sympathetic understanding, and Christian example, "Coach" has guided countless boys and girls along the paths that will soon lead them into more useful citizenship in any community.

So, to a guide, both in the field of sports and along the roads of life; to an adviser sincerely interested in young people and their problems; to a friend very close to the hearts of many, to "Coach," we gratefully dedicate this, the 1955 PEMICAN.

Once our footsteps were hesitant and faltering as Freshmen - - -

But soon after, eager and learning as Sophomores - - -

Then climbing and steady,

as we were Juniors - - -

Finally, as Seniors, we left footprints clear and sure - - - Footprints on the sand of time

“Footprints on The Sands of Time”

*“Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footsteps on the sands of time.”*

—LONGFELLOW

We, the graduating seniors, will leave High Point High with the treasures that we have accumulated over our high school years — a wealth of fun and fellowship and a treasure-house of priceless knowledge and experience. We leave behind the footprints of our accomplishments — some large and impressive, others small and insignificant. We trust that these steps will serve as guides for the classes to come.

TRAITON

Footsteps that

As superintendent of High Point City Schools, Dr. Dean B. Pruette has proved himself able and willing to meet the demands of a very important position. His enthusiasm, his friendly interest in students, and his co-operation with the schools and the community have earned for him the respect and admiration of all.

An invaluable connecting link between school and community is the school board. These civic-minded citizens, interested in the education of tomorrow's leaders, have worked long and hard to insure a good educational system for the youth of High Point.

Working for the betterment of our school system are the members of the School Board: D. A. Rawley, W. T. Tomlinson, Mrs. Blake Thompson, J. B. Phillips, and R. M. Campbell.

Lead us

Devoting much time and energy in service to the school is our Principal, D. P. Whitley. Mr. Whitley is regarded with affection by all his eager charges as he continually holds aloft the high ideals of High Point High School.

Miss Frankie Craven, our new Dean of Girls, has already proved that her pleasing disposition and understanding of students will make her a promising candidate for High Point High's Faculty Hall of Fame.

Seen everywhere, giving advice and making himself congenial with everyone, is our Dean of Boys, Ralph Vance. His jovial personality is an inspiration to all who know him.

They take many People whose footsteps lead them to the Dean's office are greeted by the smiling faces of these girls, who assist Mr. Vance and Miss Craven. Issuing sick slips and checking the clinic records are only a few of the many duties performed by these girls. Even though kept constantly busy by people wanting various things, they are always ready with a cheery "Hello, may I help you?" for everyone. These gals are the ones who keep your records of attendance every day, which is not an easy job, but is ably done by this staff.

A favorite face to be found in the general office is that of Mrs. Johnsie Jackson, known to her staff of girls as Mrs. "J." In her capacity as secretary of High Point High, Mrs. Jackson performs many and varied tasks; but she does them all with a willingness that amazes those who know and observe her.

Thanks, Mrs. "J" for answering our questions, for issuing our text books, and for just being a general "Jackson-of-all trades."

a "Step" for us

Assisting in keeping the office running smoothly and efficiently is Mrs. Doris Teague. Pencil always in hand, she attends to the "paper work"—the keeping of files and college records—of a busy school.

Contributing also to the efficiency of a well-organized school administration is the office staff, composed of girls from grades ten through twelve. These girls perform many important services, including answering the telephones and carrying messages to various parts of the building.

"Show me the leader, and I will know his men; show me the men, and I will know their leader." Leadership is the key word in the organization of the Student Council. Composed of an Upper House and a Lower House, the Council has charge of many school activities. Among these have been the sale of book covers, football pins, Christmas cards, and the direction of the talent show.

Our president, Linda Groome, and vice-president, Joe Jones, with the able help of the adviser, Miss Louise Hunter, have set an excellent example for future Council officers. In every respect this year's Council and committees have done the job well.

Pausing in their other activities, members of the Lower House come to the aid of President Linda Groome.

Leading our path towards graduation are these able Senior Class officers: Byron Starnes, President; Sherry Curlee, Treasurer; Richard Masan, Vice-President; and Ja Ann Sawers, Secretary.

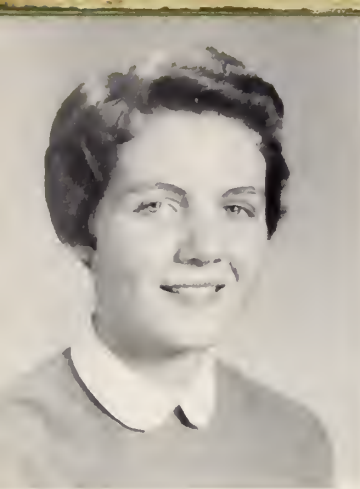

Graduating Footsteps

Guiding the footsteps of the Seniors through their last year at High Point High School are the class officers and their adviser, Mr. Harry Hendrick. If Seniors were to retrace their footsteps, they would re-live such activities as the excitement of having Pemican pictures made, practicing for the Senior play, and something which made the deepest impression of all—the Senior Pram. Mr. Hendrick has been a counselor to those Seniors whose footsteps have faltered, and he has been an inspiration to all. Leaving our beloved High Point High School is a sad experience for Seniors, but we will remember with gratitude the guidance that was given us by our officers and adviser.

The thrill of becoming a part of high school life was felt the day the "kids" were brought to school to take part in an audition for senior mascot. The shy little girl who refused to participate and the student who could not coax his brother to sing were all a part of selecting the mascots. Winning out were Ellen Cox and Woody Smith.

With these smiles anyone would gladly help MARY GEDDIE and WADE JARVIS—Friendliest—as they collect money for Polio.

Looking towards the future are the Most Likely to Succeed— LINDA GROOME and LAR-KIN KIRKMAN.

Sitting pretty is our Best Looking couple — GEORGE COOK and SHERRY CURLEE.

Best-Dressed ANNE ARMFIELD and DAVID RAWLEY "measure up" to their title in a familiar setting.

"May I help you, please?" asks PEGGY KEPLEY to BOBBY CULLER—those with the Best Personality.

"Shouldering" their way along the paths of sports are Most Athletic PATSY POOLE and JIM BOGGS.

Clowning and "fishing" for laughs as usual are the Wittiest POLLY YOW and RONNIE RUSSELL.

Those Juniors who are ready to follow the Seniors' footsteps and lead next year's classes are these capable leaders: President, Kay Moore; Vice-President, Jimmy Martin; Secretary, Ellen Walton; Treasurer, Libby Johnson. They have been ably guided by Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, the class adviser.

This Junior class has had the pleasure of presenting a three-act comedy called Andy Hardy, and the funds from this play have helped to increase the Junior treasury. This class also helped the Seniors make the Junior-Senior Prom a success.

Rising Footsteps

Progressing Footsteps

Progressing farther along the path of education and of life are the Sophomores. Now well-integrated into the sometimes hoppy—sometimes hectic—life of High Point High, they are ready to go on to more advanced work, with a more mature viewpoint. The next two years could be the turning point in the lives of many, and these years furnish a good proving ground on which to shape the future. Aply guided by their odviser, Mrs. Florence Shaw, and a fine slate of officers, they are sure to succeed.

The able leaders who guided the Freshmen in their first big step towards graduation are Treasurer, Jimmy Adams; President, Joyce Marlette; Secretary, Sandi Stanley; Vice-President, Jo Ann McCanless.

Ascending Footsteps

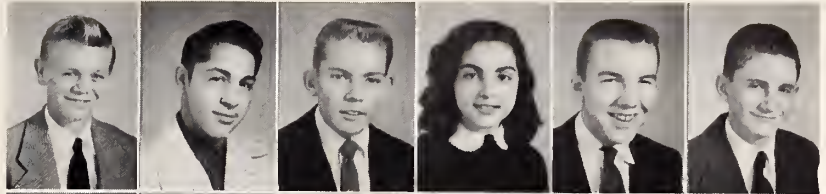

Hesitancy and bewilderment aptly describe the feelings of a Freshman, newly arrived at High Point High, who must adjust to a different and more mature atmosphere. As a lower classman, the student receives impressions from his surroundings, and, in turn, makes his own impressions, even upon the school itself.

Now is the time to make those footsteps firm and sure and to choose the right path that leads to success.

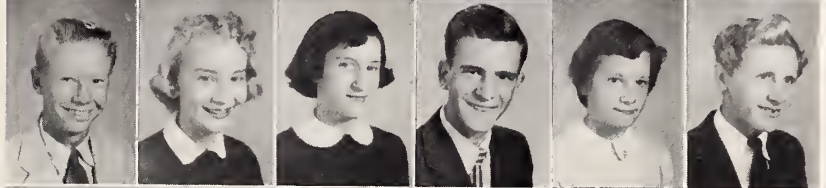

The class officers and class adviser, Mrs. Anne S. Burton, furnish the excellent leadership necessary in this first important step in life.

The hard-working "big four" of the Pemican staff are Virginia Cox, Assistant Editor; Loui Cox, Editor; Miss Louise Tapp, Adviser; and Arlen Yokley, Business Manager.

Peerless Pemican Personalities

Click, click, click is the sound of the typewriter as these typists furiously get the book ready for press; standing: Doris Boone, Nancy McNeill, Shirley Turner, Barbara Schoenfeldt, and seated, Harriet Brown.

Pausing for only a moment from the task of identifying "umpteens" pictures are these hard-working but happy members of the Pemican editorial staff. Seated on the desk, copy-writer Mary Geddie watches Betty Parker and Dee Smith work. Standing behind are Ann Southerland, copy-writer Sam Guy, and sports editors Jo Ann Sowers and Bobby Kirkman.

Work, work, work—that is what you will find around the Pemican office, especially around “deadline” season. Here comes someone trying to sell you an ad, and there goes a copy writer busily scratching his head for a title before having Miss Louise Tapp, the adviser, “o.k.” it.

The “three musketeers”—Loui, Virginia, and Arlen—are the slave drivers and brain behind the book. Thanks to them, the Pemican will get out on time.

The most indispensable soul on the staff, Norman Samet, poses for once in front of, not behind, the camera. Thanks to his “O.K., on three. 1. 2. 3.” and snap, this annual has pictures.

Footsteps here, footsteps there, the members of the Pointer Editorial Staff leave their prints all over High Point. The Editorial Staff covers stories far and wide to make interesting news for the paper. They work and work to secure appointments and interviews, and they always strive to meet their deadlines. Above are pictured Miss Eleanor Young, Adviser; Anita Eagle, Assistant Editor; and Larkin Kirkman, Editor.

Tramp, tramp, tromp—Pointer footsteps sound over High Point High School and the town. Without the ever alert Business Staff to get the odds, there would be no Pointer. Every day during the seventh period, these energetic guys and gals obtain odds for the paper. This staff, like the Editorial Staff, has a deadline to meet. This ambitious group, headed by Mrs. Lydo Sowers, Business Adviser, and Betty Adams, Business Manager, pictured at left, plays an important part in the publication of the Pointer.

Standing by the water fountain, which was presented to the school by the N.H.S. as its first project this year, are the officers of the National Honor Society: Richard Hallman, President; Betty Adams, Vice-President; Peggy Kepley, Secretary; and Joe Huff, Treasurer. Along with Miss Maxalyn Mourane, adviser for the Society, the officers and members have had a year of outstanding service to the school.

The Honor of Leading

Most outstanding in service to his school and classmates during his high school years was Jimmie Casey, who was presented the National Honor Society Award in the spring induction ceremony. As president of the senior class and vice-president of the N.H.S., Jimmie always was willing to work and eager to serve.

In order to achieve membership in the National Honor Society, a student must follow the footsteps of Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service. Impressive inductions are held three times a year. New members are notified that they have been chosen through a candlelight "tapping" ceremony.

Members of the Honor Society have the duty of keeping the "Torch of Truth and Honor ever burning before them." They work diligently to perform this task.

One of their projects for the year was the sale of stationery, which boosted the treasury. They were co-sponsors with the Beta Club in conducting a successful College Day.

The National Beta Club has as its main objective the promotion of citizenship and leadership. This citizenship and leadership is not just for Beta Club members, but for everyone.

To be able to get into the Beta Club, Juniors must have a 92 average and Seniors must have a 90 average.

The goal of the Beta Club is the same as the goal of education and that is: to prepare each individual for his place in the democratic world.

Scholastic Reward

No, these Juniors and Seniors are not a jury taking an oath; but they are the new members of the National Beta Club taking their pledge.

"Service" is the watchword for the boys of the Key Club. Always ready with a helping hand, the members have carried out many projects, including the planning, printing, and distributing of the Key Club Directory and the sale of programs at the football games. Officers are, seated, George Cook, Secretary; Joe Jones, Treasurer; standing, Richard Hallman, President; Woody Weisner, Vice-President.

DOUBLE-TALK

The Masque and Gavel Society encourages the use of good speech and promotes speech activities in the school. Realizing that the most widely used form of communication is speech, the members of the club strive to improve themselves orally. It has paid off, too, in several plays and skits—both humorous and serious. Their adviser is Miss Ruth Goodman.

Fun, fellowship, helping others—all these are a part of the Y-Teen organization. These gals meet every Tuesday night at the Y.W.C.A., and it is here that they do their planning for coming activities. Whether it's a party, or a campaign to raise money for a needy family, the Y-Teens go about their work with ready smiles and willingness. Planning a Christmas candlelight service, providing a Thanksgiving basket for a family, selecting delegates to the convention, planning dances in co-operation with the Hi-Y Club—these activities, along with a gay spirit and a desire to help others, constitute the Y-Teens.

One of the most outstanding organizations at High Point High School is the Hi-Y. Ambitious and energetic, the boys have planned and put through many projects and social events. Several dances have been held at the "Y" as a result of their efforts. Their meetings are interesting, as well as entertaining; and well-known speakers are often on hand. Sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., the club teaches its members good sportsmanship and principles of Christian living.

"Male"-Men and Letters

Bringing athletic honors to High Point High for the past few years have been the members of the Monogram Club. These lettermen have practiced hard and have played well, in order to gain, along with the victory laurels, the quality known as sportsmanship. As one of the club's projects this year, the members have sold ice-cream at the basketball games. They have kept High Point prominent in athletics and have developed a keen spirit of friendly competition.

Footsteps from the High Point High School of today will lead into the homes of tomorrow. This is what the busy gals who are members of the Future Homemakers of America say! These girls meet once a month to plan their projects, parties, suppers, and other activities. Conducting cake and pie sales, making valentine favors for hospital trays, producing a fashion show — these were all projects carried out by the F.H.A. During 1954-55 the High Point group sent representatives to county, district, and state rallies. Officers pictured at the left are Jo Ann Sowers, President. Linda Marrison, Treasurer; Sarah Montgomery, Parliamentarian; Doris Baone, Secretary; Evelyn Hyman, Reporter; Linda Groome, Vice-President; Penny Hutchison, Historian; and Patsy Caughman, Song Leader.

Promising "Pedagogues"

Busy! Busy! Busy! How well these words describe the members of the Future Teachers of America Club! The activities of the F.T.A. are many and varied; but all of them tie in with the main purpose of the club—to promote the teaching profession. F.T.A. members helped sponsor College Day and the Parent-Teacher Association Open House. They sent representatives to the state F.T.A. convention at Duke University. Some of the members have substituted at Tomlinson Elementary School, and all of them have observed there. Standing left to right, are the officers of F.T.A.: Doris Woods, Mary Stevenson, Jenny McGinn, Anita Eagle, the adviser, Miss McInnis, Carolyn Guyer, Albea Chafin, and Nancy Guyer.

Friends of Books

Here's a busy group of people! Members of the Library Club meet the first Wednesday in each month, before school begins. Occasionally the members have the opportunity to hear inspirational talks by guest speakers. Also, these literary-minded students go on field trips to elementary schools and to the public library. At Christmas-time they helped to entertain at a tea, honoring faculty members and their families.

Last fall the local Library Club was host to twenty other high school clubs at the Northwestern District convention. Two of the district officers for this year are from High Point: Albeo Chafin, president, Jenny McGinn, secretary.

Le Cercle Francais

For the first time in its history, High Point High School has a French club. This organization, Le Cercle Francais, was created by popular demand of the students studying French. Guided by their adviser, Miss Colista Wesiner, the members presented a chapel program dealing with the activities of the club. They also presented an induction ceremony. A tempting repast of onions, garlic, and grape juice was served to the inductees.

"Los Amigos" – The New Spanish Club

A new club formed at High Point High School during 1954-55 was the Spanish club called the "Los Amigos" Club. This group, which met once a month, carried out many interesting programs. At one meeting they had an interesting talk on Mexico; at another they learned some Mexican dances. Anyone taking second year Spanish was eligible to become a member of this club.

Diversified Occupations

The main purpose of the Diversified Occupations class is to give "on the job training" to the boys and girls while they are still in school. It is a co-operative program between the school and the industries of High Point.

In order to supplement the work of their classes and to provide for social activities, the Diversified Occupations students have organized a D.O. Club. President Clyde Ward is pictured at the left.

Putting into practice some of the skill he has learned in D.O. is the Secretary, Bascom Redding.

The purpose of Distributive Education is to offer a co-operative part-time training program for students interested in distributive work. It offers the opportunity to train junior executives so that they may hold responsible positions in their chosen field. D.E. is open to juniors and seniors sixteen years of age and over. They must have qualifications that are generally accepted for this type of work, and a sincere interest in distribution. All of the 37 students have part-time jobs. They work under the supervision of the store managers and of the co-ordinator. A special effort is made to relate schoolwork with problems on the job. The class takes up all phases of technical and professional development. Buyers, store managers, service managers, advertising executives, and other management positions—these are the types of jobs for which D.E. trains students.

A Distributive Education Club was formed for the D.E. class for the purpose of furthering the program. All activities—classwork, field trips, on-the-job-training, and club work—are linked together. The club plans at least one major activity each month, and it is not "all work and no play." D.E. members held a bosses' banquet in the spring and had a Christmas party at the Y.M.C.A. An important aspect of the club is sending delegates to conventions—district, state, and national. Last fall the district convention was held in High Point, and several members of the local D.E. club won honors in the contests. Representatives were sent to the National Convention in Richmond, Virginia.

"Moy I help you?" asks Doris Eddins, a member of the D.E. Club. Like all the other members, Doris ottends closses, then gets on-the-spot experience at o leading down-town department store.

Parades and Marching Feet

Homecoming always reminds you of a football game and of a band. You see the high-stepping majorettes and the drum major as they lead the blue-and-white High Point band across the field. The look of concern on the band leader's face gives way to a smile of happiness as the new band members do their numbers with skill and precision.

Band Director David Carter has led the band in many concerts and has taken them to Greensboro for the state contest.

Winners of first seats in the All-State Orchestra are Mae Van Zett, cello; L. G. Wilson, French horn; Shelby Jean Grady, string bass.

With the lifting of her "magic wand," Miss Virginia Frank produces a haunting melody from her instrumental choir—the High Point High School Orchestra.

The orchestra has given its annual concert at High Point College; also it has given a concert in Waynesville. Some of the members of the orchestra participated in the dedication of the Southern Exposition Building. However, the highlights of the year's achievements was the orchestra's participation in the state contest held in Greensboro.

Running a big organization like the orchestra isn't so easy as you think, but these officers have kept things in hand. They are, seated: Sam Garrard, President; standing, Mae Van Zett, Treasurer; Anne Hicks, Secretary; Deanna Lewis, Vice-President; Libby Nicholson, Member-at-Large.

From the chair room comes the strangest sounds! Then someone tells you that the A Cappella has been rehearsing some of its numbers in Latin in preparation for the concert with the North Carolina Symphony.

The choir has been inspiring in its interpretation of the music for the "Lights of Christmas" program. Also it has provided excellent programs for school assemblies, church and civic groups, and for Commencement.

Under the leadership of Dr. Charles C. Taylor, the choir has captivated its audiences through its superb singing.

The male chorus of the high school has been ably directed by Dr. Charles C. Taylor. One of its activities was to sing in the "Lights of Christmas" program. If you had happened to go by the choir room any day at second period, you would have been impressed by the enthusiasm of these talented choristers.

Combining the first and second period girls' choruses, Miss Nancy Staley has trained an excellent Girls' Choir. This choir has joined with the "Choralettes" in singing at various programs, including the "Lights of Christmas" program. They really can make the rafters ring.

The girls of the choral group are specially picked for their musical ability. They are a new group in the high school and perform under the name of "The Choralettes." Under the guidance of their director, Miss Nancy Staley, the singers have gained a skill which enables them to produce a melodic beauty in their singing.

FOOTBALL FEATS

The 1954 Black Bison football team, under the leadership of head coach Tony Simeon and assistant Jim Hayworth, ended up its football season with a mediocre 3-6 won and lost record. At times during the season the Bison looked and played like champions, but at other times they were unable to get started.

There were many returning lettermen from the 1953 squad; and these, along with the reserves and the junior varsity from the previous year, enabled the Bison to put a well balanced team on the field to meet each opponent.

The Bison were defeated in their first game of the season by Reidsville. However, the following week they played one of the best games of their entire season by defeating Gastonia. Gastonia was the heavy favorite, but the underdog Bison outplayed the Green Wave and came out on top of a 19-14 score.

The next two games were rugged for the Bison, and they lost to their opponents Durham and Burlington. In the fifth game of the season High Point defeated Salisbury by a two-touchdown margin. The following week High Point trampled the Charlotte Wildcats by a fifteen-point margin. In both the Salisbury and Charlotte games the Bison displayed their capability in defense as well as in offense.

In the last three games of the season, the Bison were never quite able to get started. At Asheville, in the first snowfall of the season, they lost to the Maroons by a five-point margin. Again the Bison bowed in defeat in the annual game with Greensboro, but they played a hard-fought game. The sturdy Bison proved to be a "handful" for the Whirlies.

In the final game of the season the Bison encountered the Demons of Reynolds High, Winston-Salem (who were already champions of the Western Conference) . . . Again the Bison yielded—this time by a twenty-point margin.

Captains of the 1954 Bison were L. G. Wilson and Jim Baggs. Both of these men played outstanding ball in the forward wall of the Bison team. Other outstanding front line men were ends, Doug Wood, Donnie Hunt, and Jerry Bullin; guards and tackles, John Whaley, Richard Hallman, and Gerald Lewis; and centers, Charles Weisner and Jimmy Martin.

In the backfield the team was quarterbacked by Clyde Kelley. Other leading backfield men were Joe Jones, George Cook, Ronnie Russell, Charles Dority, Ed Hill, and Cornell Johnson. During the season Johnson scored 79 points for the Bison cause.

All in all, the Bison football season was very successful, and the team showed good sportsmanship at all times.

Jerry Sowers and Harold Gill hold the trophies they won for their achievements in the sports field. Jerry, left, won the Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kirkman Award for being "The Best All-Round Athlete." Harold, right, won the Lloyd Whitley Basketball Award.

Winners of trophies during the 1954 season included Joe Jones, Sports Service Award; Dean White, Inspirational Football Award; Jerry Sowers, Best All-Round Athlete; Ray Harris, Thom McCan, Football Award; Jim Boggs, Cecil Athletic Award; David Fagge, Douglas Reid-Herbert Hodgkin Award; and Harold Gill, Douglas Whitley Memorial Basketball Award.

BASKETBALL BOMBSHELLS

These cheerful fellows are always ready with a helping hand (along with their grins) for the basketball team. The two managers, Morris Motley and Jimmy Holston, have proved very valuable to the team this year.

Could this be ballet? No it is just our own Donnie Hunt, jumping for a score equally as high.

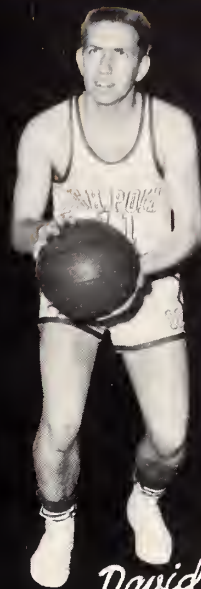

The 1954 basketball team, under the leadership of Coach A. J. Simeon, finished fifth in the Western Conference. The team, led by Harold Gill and Jimmy Burgess, played excellent ball at all times and with a little "luck" could have finished better in the conference.

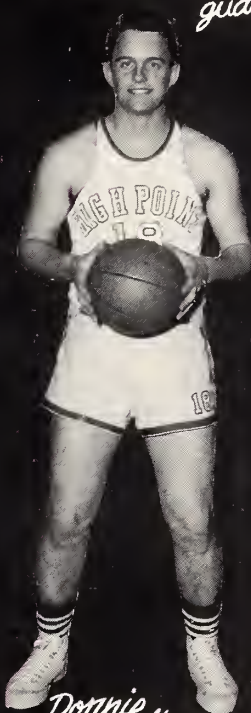

So far in the 1955 season, the Bisons have won two conference games and have lost ten. Leading this year's team is Donnie Hunt. Hunt is the biggest man on the team; therefore he plays a big role in getting rebounds also. Other leading players on the Bison team are David Smith, Byron Starnes, Charles Dority, Walter Taylor, and Larry McClure.

The two Bison Conference wins have both come over Winston, but the Bison cagers have also defeated Lexington, and the Catawba Jaycees. So far in the '55 season, the record of the Bison is not too impressive, but the team is building up some fine young players for the coming years. Sophomores and freshmen like Roy Leach and Jimmy Adams should make the 1956 Bison a well-balanced team.

FUTURE BASKETBALL BOMBSHELLS

The 1954 swimming team, coached by Bob Ousley, won five meets, last three, and tied one. Single victories were won over Greensboro, Wilmington, and Davidson freshmen, and a double victory over Raleigh. Losing meets were with Stanton Military Academy, Greensboro, and the Carolina freshmen. The only tie of the season was the meet with the Davidson freshmen.

The swimming team in the state meet tied Greensboro for the state championship. Both teams scored seventy-eight points. Captain Larkin Kirkman won the state 50 yard freestyle championship. The medley team won the state title in the 150 yard event.

No, they're not getting ready to fly, but they're practicing the butterfly stroke. That looks like fun, Chester and Buddy.

Talking over strategy for the next big meet are Coach Bob Ousley and Captain Buddy Shaphard.

TRACKS

Although the 1954 track team lacked experience, it still showed up well in the meets in which its members participated. The team, composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, was under the guidance of coaches, Jim Hayworth and George Gillie.

The cinderman finished third in the Western Conference. Terry Hart and Jim Boggs led the team in practically all of the meets. Hart, the fastest man on last year's team, made a good showing in the state meet. The members of the 1955 team will still lack experience, but they hope to improve on their last year's record.

Posing with Coach Gillie are Jim Baggs, Terry Hart, Ray Montgomery and Duane Best.

"Up and over" goes a member of the 1954 track squad. Feats such as this brought experience to a promising team.

G. Wilson, Gerald Lewis, Doug Waad.

GRADE A GRAPPLERS

The Black Bison wrestling team, defending state champions, goes into this 1955 season with high hopes of winning its fourth straight state championship. The last time the grapplers lost a team match was in the middle of 1953. The team has four returning state champions to bolster it; they are Jim Boggs, L. G. Wilson, Albert Gray, and Bill Butler. Coach of the wrestling team, George Gillie, has high expectations for his team this year, and he says things are looking bright for next year also.

KINGS OF THE COURT

Under the leadership of Coach Roy Correll, the 1954 tennis team achieved a respectable 6-5 won-lost record. The tennis team, led by Jerry Sowers and Edward Jordon, played exceptionally well in the matches with Groy of Winston. Members of the '54 team were Ken Welch, Lee Groome, Phillip Davis, Jerry Sowers, Edward Jordon, Jerry Morgon, and Pete Moffitt. The 1955 team will have four lettermen back, but the team as a whole will lack experience.

TEE'D OFF

The 1954 golf team, coached by Tony Simean, finished its season with a respectable 7-4 won-last record. Coker McCain was Number One man on the golf team last year, and he is likely to hold this spot in the 1955 season.

The 1955 golf team is expected to be very strong, as all of last year's lettermen will be back. Men who will be heavily counted on by the golf team are Bill Bulla, Joe Teague, Jahn McGahey, David Stanton, and George Setzer. The 7-4 record of the 1954 season should be improved in '55.

BATTIN' BOYS

The 1954 baseball team, under the direction of Coach Jim Hayworth, had a successful season. Although the team members lacked experience and steady pitching, they bettered the record of the 1953 baseball team.

Leading pitchers on the team were Doug McCall and Joe Huff, while the leading hitters were Bobby Culler, Byron Starnes, Ronnie Russell, and Charles Huff.

Keep an eye on that ball, boys.

"LET'S HEAR THAT YELL"

Rah! Rah! Rah! The 1955 cheerleaders added much to the spirit and pep of all sports events. They led the pep rallies, organized bus trips for out-of-town games, formed this year's Pep Club, and led homecoming festivities. The girls put in much hard work and practice in order to learn the yells and cheers.

Hit that man and hit him hard!

Great Athletic Artists

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to create an active interest in all sports. This year the girls have displayed their skills in speedball, basketball, and softball, as well as in individual sports. Under the capable leadership of Miss Marianne McDonald, the members have built the organization into a strong and worthwhile club. There is never a "dull moment" in the G.A.A.

Homecoming Queen

Mayor Covington cheers after he has crowned the Homecoming Queen, Miss Betty Adams. Betty's escort, Wayne Walker, looks rather bewildered by the day's events.

Despite the general confusion and litter on the athletic field in this candid shot of homecoming, there emerged from the jumble many attractive floats.

Every "Class" Should Have One

"Every Family Has One" and every cast should have a Sarah Johnson, Becky Hester, Paul Moss, and Jimmy Casey, because they certainly proved to a delighted audience that the 1954 Senior Play, "Every Family Has One," was a big success. Scenes below show, too, that it was a "whopping" night for a grand cast.

At left—Need we say more?

A "Hardy" Laugh

A hat, an original painting, and straw shoes—these were the souvenirs which Andy Hardy (V. L. Hill), a typical teen-ager with financial problems, picked up on his way home from a prep school via Mexico.

"Titanic" Entertainment

The cast of the 1954 Talent Show with their theme, the ship "Good Will," were guided to a grand finish by Captain Casey. A variety of entertainment combined to make a colossal show, profits of which went to the Student Council.

A Dance, A Dream, A Melody—“Rhapsody in Blue”

Amid the setting of blue ballerinas the Juniors and Seniors danced way into the night at the annual prom. Scenes here depict the success of a beautiful, “blue” evening.

Parallel parking will be a "snap" after this fellow passes Lieutenant Shields' thorough training.

Come on now, boys! Would it be safe to pass here or not?

Faces white with terror, tense bodies braced for a shock—is there going to be a terrific wreck? No, it is just a routine class in Drivers' Training, and the people in the car are attempting to learn the do's and don't's of correct driving. However, before they graduate to the shiny new Ford, the students devote a certain amount of time learning the "theory" of driving in a brand-new, well-equipped classroom.

STOP!
LISTEN and LEARN

From the eye of the hood ornament these anxious faces of Jack Whitley, Robert Burton, and Lt. Shields in the front seat, and Jimmy Moss and Bobby Jarvis in the back, look as if they could gain some confidence, along with their excellent knowledge of Drivers' Training.

Winding road! Watch how you turn that wheel. Learning the rudiments are Lieutenant Shields, George Branscom, Mitchell Parker (standing), and Lane Hill.

Steps of Service

Sheriff Snipes, a friend to all who know him, performs a very valuable service to our school. Night watchman for many years, Sheriff Snipes inspects the grounds and building while he is on duty.

"Coach" looks with interest at the box of athletic equipment being handed him by W. F. Jones, the purchasing agent of the High Point City Schools. Mr. Jones, (like us all) seems pleased to come to "Coach's" office.

Buy This and Play That

This friendly new janitor, Scottie, has done everything we wished him to do, without a complaint. In addition, he has made friends with everyone.

Evans makes sure that our building is warm and that everything runs smoothly. We deeply appreciate his untiring service.

Caught in a rare pose, these indispensable four, who seldom stop their endless task of keeping the school "spic and span," are the maids, Lucy Blue, Millie Leach, Katherine Bailey, and Eloise Collier.

Helping many of the students arrive on time to school are these bus drivers. First row: Cleo Denny and Roby Shives. Second row: Jackie Croter and Charles Millikon. Third row: Bob Hedgecock and Douglas Mishoe.

Busses and Books

May we say "Thank You"

First to the administration and faculty for their valuable guidance and infinite patience: If you, our teachers, had not been so tolerant of our absences, late make-up work, and constant interruptions, our purpose would have been defeated before we began. To Mr. Whitley and our adviser, Miss Tapp, we owe a special debt of gratitude for constant consideration and many concessions.

To the student body we wish to say that we appreciate your co-operation in all matters such as pictures and information. After all, without you there would be no annual.

To our entire staff: We confess that we have fussed—we're sorry, but we do love you. Any accomplishment is only as good as the work put on it; and the staff, by its endless effort and work will have made this book whatever success it may be. May we thank you for listening to our complaints, ignoring our mistakes, and working like dogs on "deadline days."

To our chief photographer, Norman, go our thanks for a job well done. We appreciate you catering to our whims and fancies in poses, including everything from leaning off roofs to crouching in corners. To Joe, Albert, and Jimmy, who assisted in the darkroom tasks, go laurels for top performances.

To the copy writers, Sam, Sally, and Mary: Without you the task would have been impossible. We wish you best of luck in writing books! To Irene, Dee, and Betty, for countless pictures identified and cutlines written, we owe a special "thank you." To Ann and Helen, who have handled the senior statistics so smoothly, we only say that you have more patience than we have. To Jo Ann and Bobby for accurate sports copy, to Freddie for exacting layouts, to Buddy for all-round assistance, we say thanks a million. To our typists, Harriet, Nancy, and Shirley go our special thanks. Others may have written copy, but you typed it all!

To the business staff: You sold more ads than any other previous group, ($3,000) and we're proud of all of you. The two top salesmen, Becky ($900) and Betty ($400), deserve an extra pat on the back. The rest of you added to the final goal in more than a big way. Thank you, Dudley, Doris, Mary, Peggy, Etta, Kitty, Jenny, V. L., Pat, Carol, Libby, and Rachel. We add our special thanks to Barbara for the necessary job of recording and tabulating the advertising.

Finally—to all of you we say simply and sincerely, thank you. This book has meant a great deal to us and without you, it would still be a dream instead of a reality. Again—thank you!

LOUI, VIRGINIA, and ARLEN.

Ronald,
"You are a fine young man." We have had a lot of fun together haven't we. Remember, what you said about the girls and be sure not to let one get you like one did me.

I just kidding but I advise you to last as long as you can, which probably won't be long.
